

I strongly ask you to reconsider weakening Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I pay a monthly phone bill for my personal use, not to receive harassing/disruptive phonecalls. If I need services from my "established business relationships", I know how to contact them.